

If we are to truly remain a Democratic society, then all U.S. citizens should have complete and total access to uncensored journalism. Mass corporate ownership of large media outlets is not the FREEDOM our country was founded on.